

Although you can only associate one catalog with any given site, you can associate as many sites as you like with any given catalog. In many modules in Admin, there's a context switcher in the top left that allows you to select which site you want to view or edit.

After creating a new site, it may take up to 30 minutes before the cache refreshes and the site settings are available for configuration.